

Accessing Your Scores in the Scantron Score Report Portal

Prepared May 2021

To access your examination scores, you will use the Scantron Score Report Portal. This document outlines the steps you will take to access your scores.

First Time User?
Use your previously provided activation code (What's this?) to request an account.

At the bottom left, there are links for "Contact Us", "Terms & Conditions", and "Privacy Policy", along with the copyright notice "Copyright © 2006- 2021 Scantron All Rights Reserved.". At the bottom right is the Scantron logo and tagline.

When scores are released to candidates, you will receive an automated email from candidatesupport@scantron.com. This email will inform you that you should go to the score report portal to view and print your scores.

Please add the email address candidatesupport@scantron.com to your preferred senders list/approved senders list to ensure that you receive this important email message.

If you are a first-time user in the score report portal — most candidates will be first-time users following their first testing attempt — you will need to request an account.

If you are a returning user in the score report portal (if you have tested for an examination for the same organization at Scantron previously), then you will need to log in as a returning user. If you have forgotten your password, please use the "forgot password" link on the score portal home page, www.scantronassessment.com/scorereportportal.

First-Time User Access

If you are a first-time user in the Scantron Score Report Portal and you tested via computer-based testing, you will need the following information to request an account.

1. The unique password that you used to log in to your examination at the testing center. The unique password is included in the testing appointment confirmation email you received from Scantron. This password is your activation code for the Scantron Score Report Portal.

Please make sure to use the most recent confirmation email if your testing appointment was rescheduled. Also, make sure you use the confirmation email for the testing appointment for which you want to review your scores.

If you have lost your confirmation email, please contact Scantron for assistance. Please call +1.919.572.6880 and ask for customer service. Please indicate that you need your confirmation email for your recent computer-based testing appointment in order to access the Scantron Score Report Portal.

If you are a first-time user in the Scantron Score Report Portal and you tested via paper-based testing, you will need the following information to request an account.

1. The unique activation code provided to you by Scantron. This activation code may have been provided by email or letter.
2. The admission letter/ticket provided to you by Scantron for your testing appointment.

Please make sure to use the most recent admission letter/ticket if your testing appointment was rescheduled. Also, make sure you use the admission letter/ticket for the testing appointment for which you want to review your scores.

If you have lost your activation code or your admission letter/ticket email, please contact Scantron for assistance. Please call +1.919.572.6880 and ask for customer service. Please indicate that you need your activation code or your admission letter for your recent paper-based testing appointment in order to access the Scantron Score Report Portal.

Once you have your activation code, please take the following steps to request an account in the Scantron Score Report Portal.

1. Go to www.scantronassessment.com/scorereportportal.
2. Click the Request an Account button under the “First Time User?” header.
